Born March 2, 1876

PRAYER
O Gentlest Heart of Jesus! ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy servant. Bring him from the shadows of exile to the bright home of Heaven where, we trust, Thou and Thy Blessed Mother have woven for him a crown of unfading bliss. Amen.
My Jesus, Mercy! (100 days.)
Grant him eternal rest O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him.
May he rest in peace. Amen.

Do not sure there is relation ship between Nicholas and Jacob altus families - He is sure that Nicholas and John of Toledo were brothers. He also indicated that his father William

J. always said they had relation Altus living in Pennsylvania but ~~this~~ whole branch of the family was not known.

He also indicated that he has met and know of Altus living in Chicago and Cincinnati that were no relations and were Jewish extraction.

The Altus family in Penns had a member who ran for

Subject: English - Essay Writing
Topic: The Importance of Education

Introduction

Education is the foundation of a civilized society. It is the process of acquiring knowledge, skills, and values that enable individuals to lead a better life. In this essay, we will explore the importance of education in various aspects of life.

Firstly, education is essential for personal growth and development. It helps individuals to understand the world around them, develop critical thinking skills, and make informed decisions. Education also provides a platform for self-expression and creativity, allowing individuals to realize their full potential.

Secondly, education is a key factor in economic development. A well-educated workforce is more productive and innovative, leading to higher economic growth and prosperity. Education also helps to reduce poverty and inequality by providing individuals with the skills and knowledge needed to secure better employment opportunities.

Thirdly, education plays a crucial role in social development. It promotes social cohesion and harmony by fostering a sense of community and shared values. Education also helps to combat social issues such as discrimination and violence, creating a more just and equitable society.

Finally, education is essential for the development of a sustainable future. It equips individuals with the knowledge and skills needed to address the challenges of the 21st century, such as climate change and global inequality. Education also promotes environmental awareness and responsible consumption, leading to a more sustainable planet.

In conclusion, education is the cornerstone of a better world. It is a powerful tool for personal, economic, social, and environmental development. We must all strive to ensure that every individual has access to quality education, as this is the only way to build a truly just and prosperous society.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory of differential equations. The second part is devoted to the study of the properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem are unique and that they depend continuously on the data of the problem. The third part is devoted to the study of the asymptotic properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem have a certain asymptotic behavior as the independent variable tends to infinity. The fourth part is devoted to the study of the stability properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem are stable with respect to the initial conditions. The fifth part is devoted to the study of the qualitative properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem have a certain qualitative behavior as the independent variable tends to infinity. The sixth part is devoted to the study of the numerical properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem can be approximated by a certain numerical method. The seventh part is devoted to the study of the analytical properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem can be represented by a certain analytical expression. The eighth part is devoted to the study of the physical properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem have a certain physical interpretation. The ninth part is devoted to the study of the mathematical properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem have a certain mathematical structure. The tenth part is devoted to the study of the historical properties of the solutions of the problem. It is shown that the solutions of the problem have a certain historical background.

Mr. Alfred B. Rondot
1648 Circle Drive
Fort Wayne, Indiana 46808

Dear Mr. Rondot:

It was interesting to receive your letter, making an inquiry concerning the genealogy of the Alter family, of which you evidently are a member by reason of your great grandmother who, as you state, was a Mrs. Mary Getty.

According to our records and oral tradition, my grandfather, John Alter, came from Viernheim, Germany, to the United States in the late 1840's. He was one of the youngest in the family, according to the word which has come down to us, being between 17 and 18 years of age. Later his three sisters also came to the United States, and settled in Fort Wayne. These three sisters were Mrs. Sophia (Alter) Offenloch, Mrs. Elizabeth (Alter) Klug, and your great grandmother, Mrs. Mary Getty.

My grandfather was the only one who did not live in Fort Wayne. He joined the American Army during the Mexican War and drove an army wagon in Arizona. Later on he went to St. Louis, and from St. Louis to Toledo where he married a young woman who, with her family, had been traveling companions on the ship coming from Germany to America.

Viernheim, Germany, located some five miles from the Rhine in the former dutchy of Hesse, was the original home of the Alter family that emigrated to America. I have not had the opportunity of keeping in close touch with the many cousins of the third and fourth generation living in Fort Wayne. In Toledo there are no longer any members of the Alter family. My father's brother, who was Dr. Francis Alter, an eye, ear and throat specialist, died some thirty years ago. He had three sons who were doctors, but they all moved West to California, except one who I understand is in Tucson, Arizona, namely, Dr. Albert Alter.

Of my own immediate family there were two sisters, Lillian and Gertrude, and a brother, Alfred. All are dead and gone to heaven. Only my brother was married. He had an only son, who is with the Bell Telephone Company and is now located in Cleveland. After serving awhile in Toledo and subsequently in Columbus, he was recently transferred to Cleveland.

I am enclosing a photograph which was circulated at the time of my golden jubilee in the priesthood. I was ordained for the Diocese of Toledo, served there for twenty-some years, then went to Washington, D.C. as Director of the National Catholic School of Social Service (affiliated with the Catholic University of America), was made Bishop of Toledo in 1931, and then in 1950 was transferred to Cincinnati as Archbishop. I retired from office in 1969 and am continuing to live here in the Bishop's House since my retirement.

I know that there are many distant relatives in Fort Wayne, but I have not kept in touch with them, except with those on my mother's side (she was a Kuttner). Quite evidently you have joined the ranks of those who are looking up their genealogy or, in a more sophisticated mode of expression, seeking their identity, whatever specious meaning this latter word may imply.

With every good wish and blessing, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Karl J. Alter". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style. The first letter "K" is large and stylized, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the left. The signature is positioned over the typed name and title of the sender.

Alter Pharmacy to Close Doors

Druggist Leaves Business to Cure 'Aches and Pains Aspirin Don't Reach'

By GARY PENNER

line an old-fashioned chocolate in a tall, slender glass, with cream piled high and a cherry

s what customers at Alter Pharmacy used to get. Since 1947, the pharmacy at Broadway and Washington in Port Wayne has been serving up frosty sodas, "all made from scratch," says Joe Alter.

May 31, only the memories of Port Wayne's two remaining soda and drug stores will linger.

Alter says it's time for him to close the business, after filling prescriptions and dispensing glasses for 18 years.

Alter got to get out of the business to cure some of the aches and pains aspirin can't reach — if you know what I

Alter said. "Welfare papers, unemployment insurance, government dictation on prices — all the hassles that get under your skin after a while. I have to get out before it gets me," Alter said.

A.C. Gocke, the self-proclaimed "West Side Pharmacist," opened the A.C.
Gocke Pharmacy on the corner of Broadway and Washington Boulevard in 1896 at 96 Broadway, Alter said, while looking at an 1899 calendar Gocke gave to customers that year.

Joe Sigl ran the business for a while in 1946 and Martin Zimmerman took over between 1946 and 1947, Alter said. Ed Stiver took over in 1947, adding the soda fountain. Alter started working at the pharmacy in 1962 and has run the business since 1964 at 932 Broadway, he said, noting the difference in addresses for the same location.

Alter said. After taking a vacation "out west to see the country," Alter plans to work at the pharmacy at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Alter's three daughters, Carol, Susan and Lois, had all helped out at the soda fountain, but Alter wouldn't have his wife, Shirley, working there. "That's one way to end up with an unhappy marriage," Alter said. "She takes care of the house and I take care of the business and everything works out fine."

Alter's prescription department closes Sunday. Customer files and records, he said, will be moved to the Jefferson Pharmacy at Jefferson and Barr Streets.

"My longtime customers will be well taken care of by Denny Rorick up there," Alter said. "Some of the customers I've been taking care of for 18 years have been getting a little upset and uptight."

Alter hopes to have merchandise out of the store by May 31. To encourage that, he's selling most, but not all, merchandise at a 40 percent reduction.

bined, making it theirs alone.

One tradition* that does seem to have fallen permanently by the wayside, though, is the hope chest. Can it be possible young women have forgotten:

"At your quilting, maids, don't dally Quilt quick if you would marry
A maid who is quiltless at twenty-one Never shall greet her bridal sun!"

Or the advice to mothers from the English newspaper Spectator in 1714:

"That no young virgin whatsoever be allowed to receive the addresses of her first lover but in a suit of her own embroidery."

And:

"That no one be actually married until she hath the child-bed pillows, etc., ready stitched as likewise the mantle for the boy quite finished!"

Anyway, it's probably safe to bet the 1980 bride has not had time to hemstitch vas of the same size mesh in the center of one side of the pillowcase and, with four threads of cotton floss, cross stitch the initials right through the mesh and the sheet together. When the stitching is complete, draw out the canvas threads one by one, and there will be your cross stitch letters, crisp and clear, with no evidence of how you kept the small crosses so even!

Another way to do your initials is to fill in a large letter with tiny flowers to make a bold silhouette. Outline your letters on thin cardboard, then cut them out and lay them on the sheet which has been taped down to a firm, hard surface. Now trace around the cardboard letters, using a hard "H" pencil or a fine-tipped permanent marker. Finally, you can fill the whole letter with simple flowers free-hand and butterflies drawn and close together. Now stitch them, using satin stitch, French knots, bullion knots, lazy daisy, etc., in rainbows of colors — or keep everything in classic white-on-white. Backstitch around the outline of the letter afterward to make a clear outline. You may fall in love with these tiny flowers and decide to satin stitch them by a mill). It has never been used. When I recently took it from a chest, I found the material on one side (a flimsy, gauze-like material) had disintegrated. The reverse side, a satin-like material, seems in good condition. Have you any suggestions as to how a new cover might be put on top of the side that has disintegrated, without removing it? — Viola Davis, Sacramento, Calif.

DEAR VIOLA: Try tying the new backing on to your comforter with double knots of wool, cotton or narrow ribbons, whichever suits your comforter design best. (See diagram accompanying this column.)

DEAR ERICA: Perhaps you can help me. I bought an embroidery kit of a Williamsburg sampler reproduction. The colors are very delicate. Unfortunately, the stamping on the sample opened work on I was glem. I show t The b white. help t would ground. dary. Dillsbu

Time to Get Out!

Joe Alter, owner of Alter Pharmacy, has decided it's time to get out of the pharmacy business. The old soda fountain at the drug store is one of two remaining in Fort Wayne. For years, customers could enjoy ice cream sundaes, malts and sodas, or take advantage of hot soups and "quick-serve" sandwiches. The fountain was added in 1947 but the store was opened in 1896 and has seen many owners since. Staff photo by Mike Hanley.

Reservations should be made by mailing checks for $6 to 5131 Binford Lane, Fort Wayne, Ind. 46804.

Initialed Bed Linens Still Popu

By ERICA WILSON

In spite of the movie "The Last Married Couple in America," with its provocative subtitle, "The Endangered Species," people do seem to be getting married more than ever nowadays, and June still is the traditional month for weddings. The best wedding gift still is something with his and her initials com-her bed linens (or should we say bed percales?), so one of the presents she would most love to receive would be monogrammed sheets and pillowcases.

You can get books of initials and monograms in your local needlework store or you can work out his and her initials on graph paper (10 squares to the inch is a good size). Baste a piece of canon a crewel or needlepoint pillow with the sheets. Make it heart sh and edge it with lace to match many clergy believe is responsible for a steadily increasing flight of qualified ministers as well as a discouraging lack of entrants for the priesthood.

Celibacy is only part of the problem. Other questions the synod fathers will be asked is whether priests should take jobs, enter politics or involve themselves in revolutionary movements.
The priesthood debate is scheduled to last two weeks, after which the synod will take up the problem of world justice.
On the eve of the synod, the Pope used his weekly general audience to appeal for unity and to attack critics of the church as "decadent."

Knights name Fort Wayne's Alter state deputy

SUNDAY VISITOR 6-6-1982

MERRILLVILLE — Raymond C. Alter of Fort Wayne was elected state deputy of the 31,000 members of the Knights of Columbus in Indiana for the 1982-83 program year, succeeding Caran O. Siefert, Batesville, who headed the state council the last two years. On July 1, Siefert will become the immediate past state deputy.

Others elected to state offices were: Dr. Charles W. Kelley, Indianapolis, secretary; Doug Adams, Wabash, treasurer; Bernard Gannon, Valparaiso, advocate; and Thomas McLaughlin, Indianapolis, warden. Retiring as state warden is Edgar Day, New Albany.

THREE AWARDS WERE presented to councils and an individual member of the Fort Wayne-South Bend Diocese at the ceremonies at Merrillville.

The supreme council community activity citation was awarded to St. John the Evangelist Council 7541, Goshen, for its Toys-for-Tots program for needy families of the area.

A Crusader plaque for attaining council program requirements was given to Father Tremmel Council 1975, Plymouth. Receiving recognition for new council development was District Deputy 8 Joseph Douglass, Angola.

A memorial Mass for the 364 members who died the past year was concelebrated Friday evening by State Chaplain Msgr. Roman F. Vollmar, Loogootee, and several chaplains.

Business sessions and seminars on state and council programs were conducted Saturday. Seven new councils were established in Indiana since last convention. They are located in Kendallville, Gary, St. Joseph College (Rensselaer), Scottsburg, West Lafayette, Highland and Dyer.

SIX HUNDRED PERSONS attended the convention banquet Saturday night. Principal speaker was Bishop Andrew G. Grutka of Gary. Other speakers included State Deputy Siefert; Paul M. McGlinchey, New Haven, Conn., personal assistant to Supreme Knight Virgil C. Dechant; and Daniel P. McGinley, Terre Haute, director of the Gibault School for Boys. The convention Mass Sunday morning was celebrated by Bishop Grutka and several chaplains. Bishop Grutka was also the homilist.

Delegates to the 100th supreme convention in August at Hartford, Conn., will be State Deputy Alter; Past State Deputy Siefert; Msgr. Vollmar; Paul Reibly, Valparaiso; Cosmas Mascari, Indianapolis; Dr. John Toepp, South Bend; Andrew Novotny, Crown Point; Paul Loftus, Anderson; Anthony Vitallo, Logansport; and George Rolf, Indianapolis.

The 1983 state convention will be held May 13-15 at the Indianapolis Hilton Hotel.

TEACHING ABOUT JESUS

The most important work of a missionary is sharing the love of Jesus Christ, the joy and hope He brings, and His promise of eternal life.

This is just what thousands of missionaries on every continent do every day, for the neediest of our brothers and sisters.

Please help Christ's storytellers by praying and sacrificing for the Missions.

ALTER BROTHERS in 1928

"FIFTY-TWO YEARS OF SERVICE", Bob Alter of Alter Brothers said his father and three Uncles started the business in 1923, cars came out in 1918, so you can't go much further back. In 1923 - Oscar Alter started the business with his brothers at Lewis and Harrison. They carried general automotive parts. The move was made to Clay and Wayne in 1928.

Five homes and a garage were bought up in 1964, to further expand and make Alters the largest passenger tire warehouse in the mid-west. Everything is carried from 400 x 8 to earth mover tires with a price range from $11 to $6,000!

Bob Alter started in the business while in grade school and continued to work part time through high school and college and then went into the business full time after serving in the service in 1952. He bought out half of the business in 1954 and the rest in 1964. His son David, has been working at the store the same part time through school and has joined the firm full time this year.

Mr. Alter is President of the State wide organization, Tire Buyers, Inc. This encompasses 37 store outlets.

Alter Bros. are Seiberlings 2nd largest tire distributor in the United States.

Besides the tires they also specialize in batteries, mufflers and shocks and in service, including wheel-alignment, brake service, and tune-ups.

Besides the new tires they have re-caps and they do white in-lay and color in-lay with a special red, white and blue for the bicentennial.

Key employees have 20 years experience in terms of employment in tires. David Seligam has been the General Manager for 7 years and Wayne Gremore is the Manager of the South Store located at 5409 S. Hanna. Mr. Alter said the biggest change in tires is that the tire cost is 50% less per mile than in 1923. Tires have become lower and wider and quadrupled in air volume.

Alter Bros. is located at the corner of Wayne and Clay and the phone number is 422-8586. There is lots of free parking so stop in and visit one of the oldest and largest tire dealers in the United States. . . Open daily Mon thru Fri. 8 to 5:30 Sat. 8 to 1.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION OF
Gregor Klug and Elizabeth [Alter] Klug

MARRIED at St. Mary's Catholic Church at Fort Wayne, Ind., January 18, 1870, and celebrated their Golden Wedding with a Solemn High Mass on January 19, 1920, at the same church where they have been constant members all these years, had all their children baptized, and of which Gregor Klug is now, and has been for many years, a Trustee.

GREGOR KLUG, born September 2, 1846, in Ulmbach, Kreis Schluechtern, Hesse Kassel, Germany, son of Johann Friederich and Anna Katharina (Seipel) Klug. Johann Klug's family according to age were Elizabeth (twin), Amand (eldest son and heir to estate), Sybilla and Christina (twins), Katharina, Regina, Therodia, Gottfried, GREGOR, Karolina and Lukas.

In August, 1867, six months after the death of his father, Gregor, being dissatisfied with the military rules of Germany, left home for America, crossing the Atlantic on the third voyage of the new Steamship Germania. This boat was blown up with a time clock dynamite bomb in Hamburg harbor with great loss of life about one and a half years later. He came direct to Fort Wayne, where he already had two sisters. One of them, Elizabeth, the wife of Joseph Kuttner, and the other, Christina, the wife of Henry Grothus, both of them pioneer settlers of Fort Wayne. Shortly after his marriage Gregor Klug embarked in the retail boot and shoe business on Hanna Street, which he conducted for practically fifty years at the same location, retiring in favor of one of his sons in his seventy-fourth year. Up to this time he had no known relative by the name of Klug in America outside of his own family.

ELIZABETH ALTER, born September 12, 1849, in Viernheim, Hessen Darmstadt, Germany, daughter of Nicholas and Katherine (Weidner) Alter, Nicholas Alter's family according to age were Nicholas, Sophia, Peter, ELIZABETH, John, George, Jacob, Mary and Frank W. Grandfather Alter with his family left Germany for America in 1855, crossing the Atlantic in a sailing vessel in 48 days. They had a most eventful and terrifying voyage with much sickness and trouble aboard ship, one of their own little ones died on the boat between New York and Toledo. He first came to Toledo where he already had an older brother, John Alter, established in the trucking business. At that time Toledo was a small village, a very unhealthy swampy place with much fever and ague. After living there about one and a half years they had to leave on account of fever. They then came to Fort Wayne, which was then practically a wilderness with many Indians and wild game in abundance. Here he was for many years a prominent retail grocer.

My turn: Ursula J. Alter

Time for remembering the departed

November is a very special time, a time to remember those who have gone before us, and in doing this we also have some very sad and very happy memories.

My happy memories go back to the years when our children were growing up. We lived in the shadows of St. Peter's Parish Square on St. Martin Street in Fort Wayne, St. Peter's brings back memories of a goodly number of School Sisters of Notre Dame from Milwaukee, Wis., who have since passed on to their eternal reward.

One Sister in particular that I feel will always be remembered was little Sr. Mary Vincenta, who taught the kindergarten at St. Peter's. Sister was almost as small as some of her students, and all of them loved her dearly. I can still hear her calling her class of little ones to attention. It seemed she never had to raise her voice, and being small never caused her any problems, even in handling some of the ornery little boys.

ONE OF THE BIGGEST attractions in her classroom were two sandboxes. I do not know their origin, but I do know they were used for many, many years. At different seasons of the year Sister would build little villages and scenes to depict the season. Whoever built those sandboxes built them to last. When the old school building was no longer in use, one of those sandboxes came to stand in our backyard. Our grandchildren still use it.

You cannot possibly have memories of St. Peter's without remembering our dear pastor Very Reverend Msgr. John A. Bapst. He was truly a living saint. He was always there when you needed someone to talk to. He guided us through many difficult periods, and his spiritual assistance was something we will never forget. His guidance for the children, whether it be the boys serving Mass, or the girls helping the Sisters with sacristy work, is something our children have never forgotten. They also remember those treats that he would find in his pocket for a job well done.

Also never to be forgotten are the many times our telephone would ring at five minutes before six in the morning with Monsignor's voice at the other end of the line, asking for our son to serve Mass when the scheduled boy would oversleep or when the weather was too bad for him to show up. We would wake him, help him dress and hustle him across the street so Monsignor could start the six o'clock Mass on time.

I CAN STILL SEE Monsignor walking through the church yard or through the playground, and most of the time he was praying the Rosary. He was never too busy to stop and have a few words with anyone passing by. He dearly loved the little children and they in turn loved him.

Another wonderful memory was the celebration of Monsignor's Golden Jubilee. This is a time my husband and I will never forget, as we were celebrating our 25th wedding anniversary at the same time.

Although we had just moved away from St. Peter's, we still had our Anniversary Mass and celebration there. If you have ever seen all those lights on the altars at St. Peter's, you will never forget their beauty. It is a heavenly sight. Later that day Monsignor and several of the Sisters who were also celebrating their Golden Anniversaries came to our new home to help us celebrate, along with our family and friends.

Both of my parents were buried from St. Peter's, and I'll never forget what a consolation it was to have Monsignor with us in our home when my father was dying. He was there leading us in praying the Rosary, and it seemed to take such a weight from our shoulders.

This being the month of the "poor souls" has brought back all these special memories of loved ones. Of course we should remember them other times too, but since the Church has set aside this particular month, we should all pray for those who have gone before us, and hope and pray to God and our Blessed Mother that someone will remember us when the time comes for us to be called to our eternal reward.

Bishops tackle diverse matters at NCCB meet

WASHINGTON (NC) — At their Nov. 12-15 general meeting in Washington the U.S. bishops:

- Held their first discussions on the first draft of a proposed pastoral letter on Catholic social teaching and the U.S. economy, but took no formal action. The second draft is due next spring.
- Approved new guidelines for the continuing education of priests and for the permanent diaconate.
- Rejected a proposed version of the Psalms — the Grail Psalter — revised to eliminate masculine words like "him" when they refer to women as well as men. Some bishops questioned whether the new version obscured the meaning of some Psalms that prophesied the coming of the Messiah.

- Decided to leave up to each diocese the age for administering the sacrament of confirmation rather than recommend a preferred age nationwide.

- Received a recommendation from a special committee studying the implications of the proposed Equal Rights Amendment that the bishops not change their position of being officially neutral on the ERA.

- Heard a brief report on the progress of a Vatican-man-dated study of religious orders in the United States.

- Approved giving the bishops of Thailand $4 million over the next three years for refugee camps there.

- Had pulled from the agenda by their liturgy committee a proposed new eucharistic prayer that would have been added to the four eucharistic prayers now in use at Mass. The new prayer, the first to be written in English since the

In 1855, Mr. Anderson entered the grocery business which he successfully operated until 1867, when he retired. He cast his first vote in 1824 for John Quincy Adams for president. Eli G. Anderson, a son, for many years managed the Anderson Tea & Coffee Co., at Broadway and Jefferson.

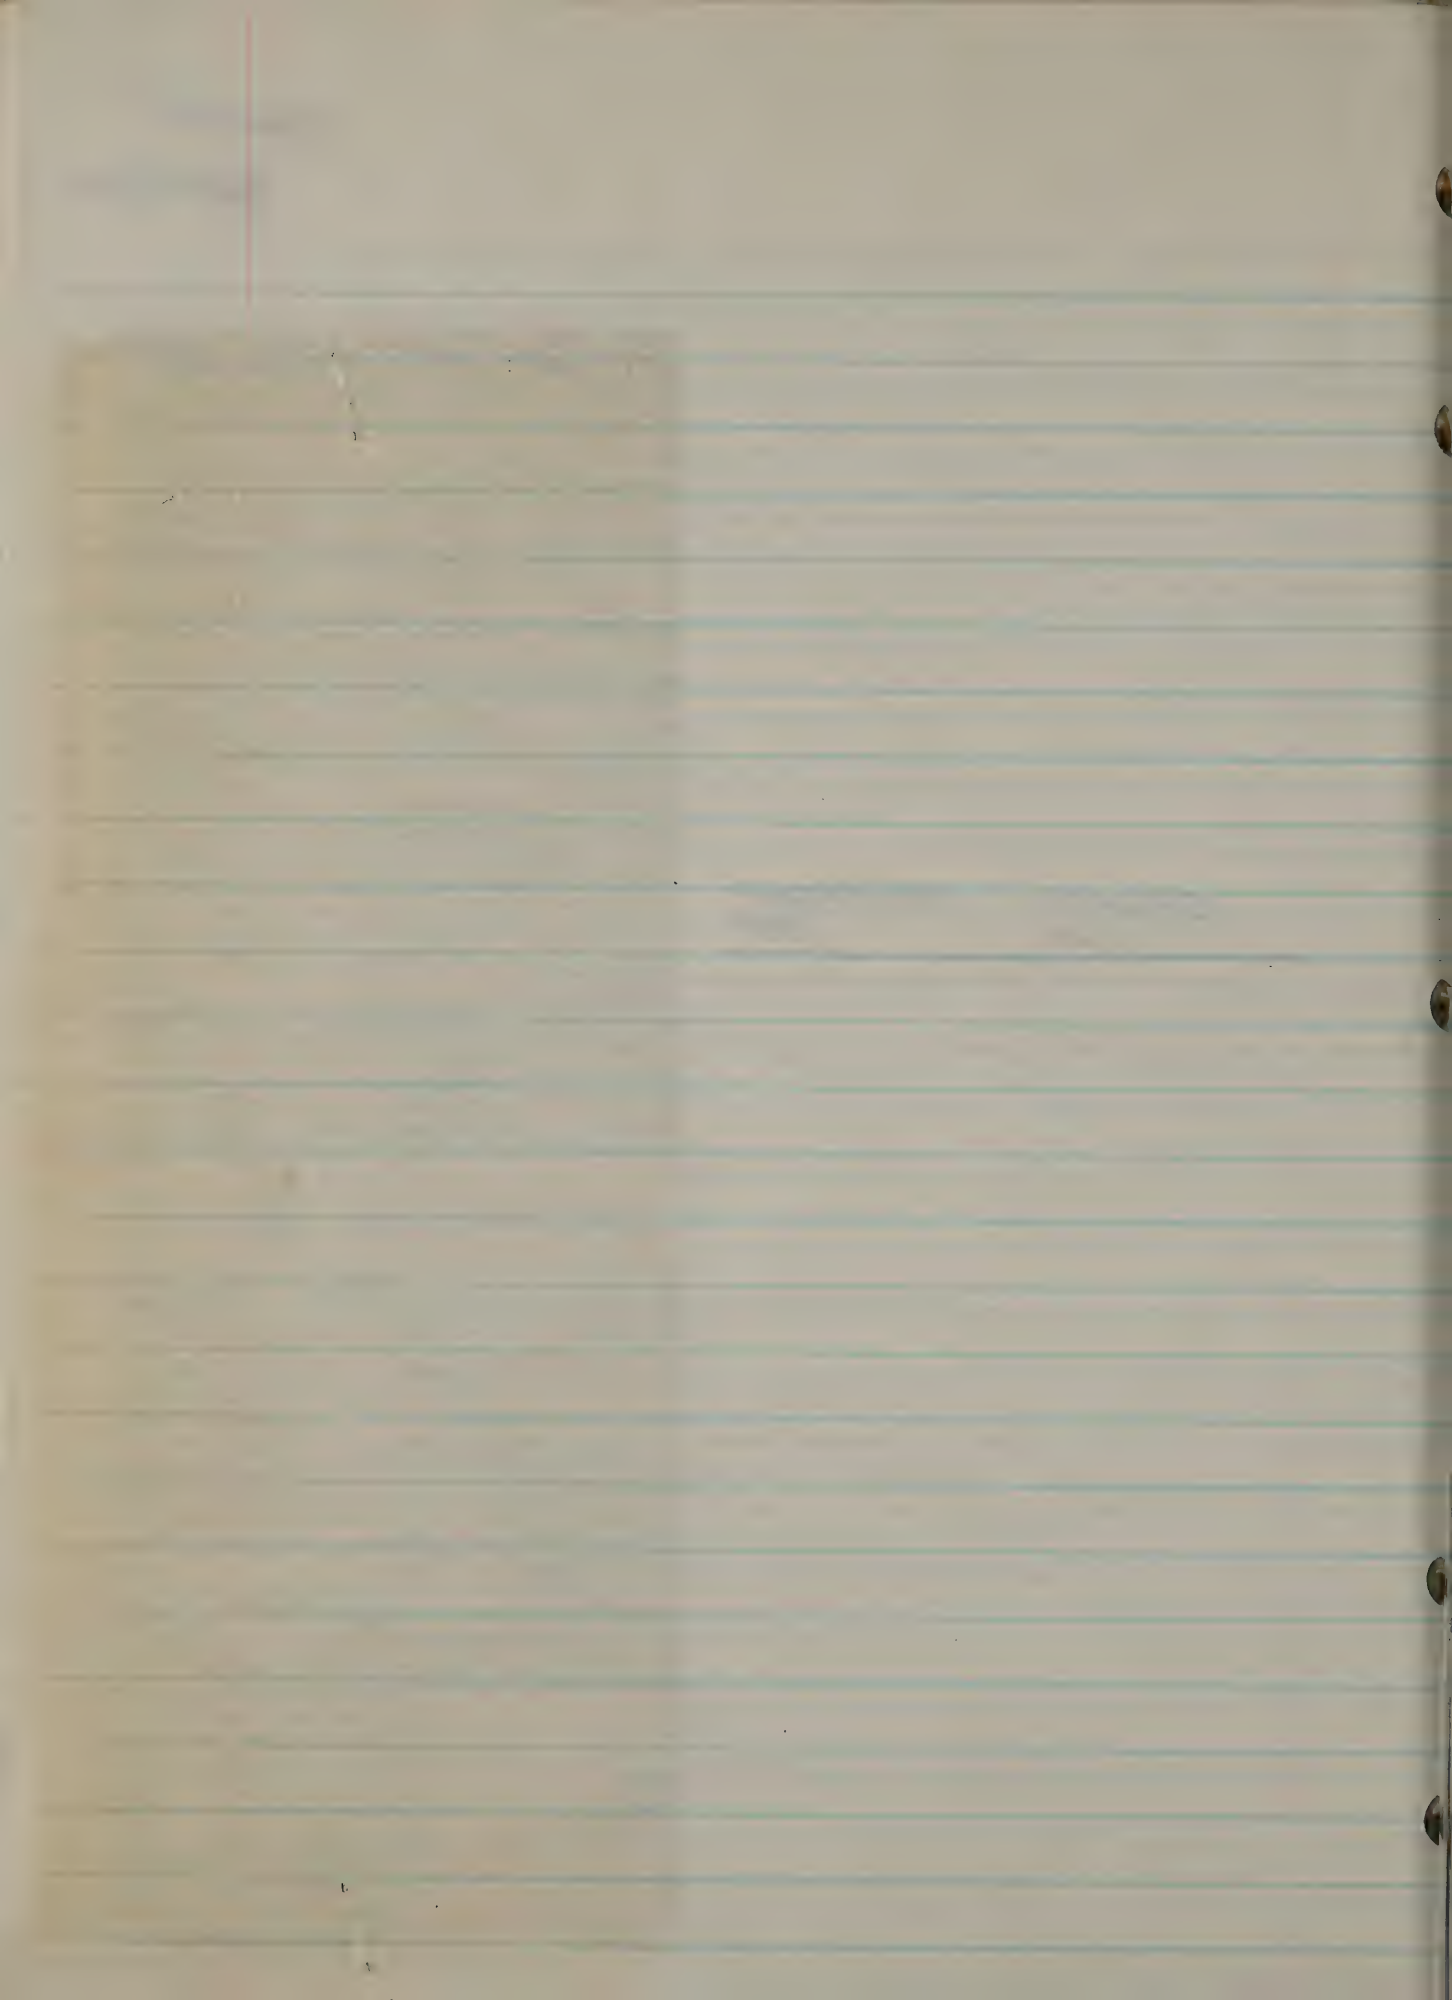

The Andersons were members of the First Presbyterian Church, and they rest in Lindenwood, one of the Nation's great historical cemeteries.

The Van Orman (or Anthony) Hotel in good times and bad: The exterior (below left) and the ornate lobby (below right), shortly after the hotel was completed. Note the stained-glass skylight. tel's end on Jan. 12, 1974. Explosive charges placed in the old hotel brought the building down in about 9 seconds.

Cityscapes: Anthony's tale

For more than 60 years, the nine-story, 263-room Hôtel Anthony was the city's leading meeting place. Located at Berry and Harrison streets, it took three years and $500,000 to build.

In 1974, it took just 294 explosive charges and nine seconds to turn it into rubble.

Completed in 1908, the Anthony was something special. Its lobby was a thing of ornate beauty, a stained-glass skylight suspended above marble walls and gilded fixtures. The hotel was first proposed by dry goods merchant Ernest Rurode and was designed by Charles Weatherhogg, a prominent architect who also designed Central High School and buildings at the Fort Wayne Country Club.

In the mid-1940s, the hotel's name was changed to the Van Orman Hotel. The hotel continued to draw customers and remained a favorite gathering spot until long after World War II. But its days were numbered.

Old age and a decline in the vitality of downtown Fort Wayne put the Van Orman on hard times. Even so, the old hotel enjoyed some memorable moments in its last years.

Alabama Gov. George Wallace made a stop there in 1964 during one of his many unsuccessful presidential bids. Wallace, known at the time as a racist, caused quite a stir during his brief Van Orman appearance. Presidential hopeful Eugene McCarthy also campaigned at the Van Orman in 1968. It was the hotel's last hurrah.

The Van Orman closed in September 1969. By that time it was once again known as the Anthony Hotel. There was considerable public debate on what should be done with the once-proud hotel; one proposal would have turned the place into apartments for the elderly. But the $1.3 million renovation idea never got going.

More than $100,000 in unpaid taxes were owed on the hotel, and a tax sale was conducted in 1973. The building was purchased by the adjacent Fort Wayne national bank, which announced plans to tear the hotel down.

The Anthony was used for fire training exercises and was finally condemned on May 3, 1973.

Stripped of most of its valuables, the hotel was blasted to the ground early on the cold Sunday morning of Jan. 13, 1974.

That same year, another grand old Fort Wayne hotel met a similar fate. The 13-story Keenan Hotel, built in 1923 at Washington and Harrison, was blasted into oblivion Oct. 20. About $2 million had been spent to refurbish the Keenan only a year before.

Today, Andy's Hamburger stand occupies the former Keenan site; a parking lot serves as the Anthony's tombstone.

Today, the city of Fort Wayne ponders a new hotel/convention center complex. But it seems doubtful the new hotel — if built — will be able to match the beauty of either the Anthony or the Keenan. ■

Donna Harper, a spokeswoman for Hyde, who for years has led the effort to restrict Medicaid funds for abortions.

Young said, "I remain strongly committed to the pro-life movement. . .but I also strongly believe my name should not and will not be used in this sort of campaign tactics against other members of Congress."

A spokesman for Garn said the senator was quitting the advisory panel, too.

Peter B. Gemma Jr., executive director of the political action committee, said he wasn't concerned about the congressmen's resignations, attributing them to a lack of communication.

The committee's announcement was accompanied by a statement on stationery bearing the names of advisory committee members, including 10 congressmen. The nine targeted races "could have dramatic and successful results for anti-abortion political activists," Gemma said.

William McKenney, spokesman for Rep. Thomas N. Kindness, R-Ohio, another advisory board member, said he spoke to Kindness about the list "and you can say he called it 'stupid.'"

A spokeswoman said Rep. Harold L. Volkner, D-Mo., also considered resigning but decided to confer first with leaders of the committee.

The reaction came after Gemma announced the names of four senators and five representatives the panel will try to defeat in primary and general elections next year. He said $650,000 had been earmarked for the 1982 election.

Those targeted for defeat were Sens. George Mitchell, D-Maine; John Chafee, R-R.I.; Daniel Patrick Moynihan, D-N.Y., and Harrison Williams D-N.J., and Reps. James Jones, D-Okla.; Morris Udall, D-Ariz.; Stephen Neal, D-N.C.; Marc Lincoln Marks, R-Pa., and Paul Findley, R-Ill.

Elfrieda App at organ she has played for 50 years.

Tiny Woman With Smile Hasn't 'Weakened'

By SUSAN A. STONE
Accent Staff Writer

Every morning Elfrieda App tells herself, "It's a great life if you don't weaken. Thank God for a new day. I'll try to do the best I can."

Life has been good for the tiny woman who always wears a smile. She shared her secret of getting along in life — a pleasant, beautiful relationship with people.

But another beautiful relationship she's had has been with the organ. That musical instrument has fascinated Elfrieda since she was a child. Then it was in the convent at St. Joseph's Hospital; now it is in the new hospital chapel. And she has played it for the past 50 years.

When she was 6 or 7 years old, Elfrieda Schanz began going with her mother to Sunday vesper services at the convent. She fell in love with the old pipe organ then. She was a young woman when she got a chance to substitute for the nun who usually played. She was a pianist and soon picked up the organ technique. She played for two services a day before the convent was closed and now does just one service. She has also been a supply organist for several Catholic churches in Fort Wayne.

Meet Your Neighbor

"This is the organ I've always played on," she said, seated at the old organ in the new chapel. "I'm not a grandiose player. I can make a lot of noise on this."

She likes the old favorites, like "Whispering Hope."

She's also sacristan for the chapel, which involves getting things ready for services and putting them away afterwards.

Elfrieda remembers her first regular job. She kept books for her father, who was a well-known photographer. He was the first to make photographs on paper negatives and Eastman Kodak Co. sent his work all over the world. He died in 1935.

In 1920, Elfrieda married Andrew App, who had served in the Navy in World War I. He was secretary of public works for 10 years and later went into the construction business. He died in 1962, after being in and out of Naval hospitals for many years.

When her husband first went into the hospital, Elfrieda took a job to help support their children, David and Sally. She was executive secretary of St. Joseph's School of Nursing for 22 years. Then she worked 15 years as purchasing agent for the hospital, retiring at age 76. She set up the purchasing department during the hospital's first renovation. Before that, many people were ordering, with no system. She remembered, "I even ordered some of the heavy material. It was quite an education."

She saw the other side of the hospital when she was a patient, about five years ago for a leg problem and last year for cataract surgery. She said, "I got wonderful care as a patient here. I had a great time. I think it helped because they knew me."

She used to travel east twice a year, then once a year to see her family. David App, retired from ABC-TV, lives in Rutherford, N.J., and Sally Rafferty, a nurse, lives in Ruxton, Md. Together, they have a total of 12 children. "You should see me amongst them," Elfrieda said. She is only 4 feet 8 inches tall and her grandsons top six feet. Her doctor advised her not to make the long trip again, so she missed her granddaughter's wedding last weekend.

Even the trip to the hospital isn't as easy as it once was. In bad weather, the hospital used to send a van, even though Elfrieda lives just across the street. Now a security guard escorts her. She said, "I can't get in the van anymore. I'm so short and it's so high."

Reflecting on her life, Elfrieda said, "I've seen a lot of changes. Whatever I do is never hard to me. I just manage it some way. There's always a way of doing it," she said.

as Mr Rondot,
my brother, Steve, sent me a genealogy work sheet which I am returning to you. He said you have done extensive work on the app family. Daddy also worked on this & has his work on the App's, Cadys, Buckles & Mc Donald's. If I have any information to help you, I'd be glad to share it. Also, I'm very interested in knowing what you have done.

Steve said your wife was an
S - I don't recognize your name, & we didn't know many of the p's.

My husband & myself have some genealogical work, but mostly on the Good side since have so much on my side. But haven't taken time to really any where. You are fortunate to the Ft. Wayne library. It is of the better libraries for this work.

Good luck to you & your work.
do hope to hear from you.

Sincerely

Carol Ann

1. Introduction
The purpose of this study is to investigate the effects of various factors on the growth of plants. The study was conducted over a period of six weeks, during which time the plants were observed and measured at regular intervals. The results of the study are presented in the following sections.

2. Materials and Methods
The plants used in this study were of the same species and were grown in identical conditions. The only variable was the amount of water they received. The plants were divided into two groups: one group received a normal amount of water, while the other group received a reduced amount. The plants were measured at the beginning and end of the study, and the results were compared.

3. Results
The results of the study show that the plants that received a reduced amount of water grew significantly slower than the plants that received a normal amount of water. This was evident from the measurements taken at the beginning and end of the study. The plants that received a normal amount of water were taller and had more leaves than the plants that received a reduced amount of water.

4. Conclusion
The study concludes that the amount of water a plant receives has a significant effect on its growth. Plants that receive a normal amount of water grow faster and are healthier than plants that receive a reduced amount of water. This finding is important for understanding the needs of plants and for developing strategies to improve plant growth.

5. References
The following references were used in this study:
- Smith, J. (2010). The effects of water on plant growth. Journal of Botany, 100(1), 1-10.
- Jones, M. (2012). The effects of light on plant growth. Journal of Botany, 102(2), 1-10.
- Brown, K. (2015). The effects of temperature on plant growth. Journal of Botany, 105(3), 1-10.

6. Appendix
The following table shows the measurements of the plants at the beginning and end of the study:

Group	Initial Height (cm)	Final Height (cm)	Initial Number of Leaves	Final Number of Leaves
Normal Water	10	25	5	15
Reduced Water	10	15	5	10

7. Summary
This study investigated the effects of water on plant growth. The results show that plants that receive a normal amount of water grow faster and are healthier than plants that receive a reduced amount of water. This finding is important for understanding the needs of plants and for developing strategies to improve plant growth.

hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Dear Mr. Rondot:

Thank you for your letter of April 27 requesting information on Gregory App.

We have checked those materials we have available and were unable to find any mention of, or information about this individual.

Unfortunately, we do not have any Reno County Directories prior to 1920. We have Hutchinson City Directories beginning with 1904 on to the present.

Sorry we did not have any luck finding this individual listed.

Cordially,

Gentlemen:

I am in search of information on Gregory App, who, through a handed down story worked as a farm hand in the Hutchinson or Reno County area, during a period of 1891 to about 1897.

Since this time span is between Federal censuses there may be a chance he could be listed in City or County Directories or perhaps the Rural Mail Directory of that period.

We are trying to confirm where he worked and for what period.

He also had a brother Andrew App who may have worked in the same general area.

"Gregory App" born 1-15-1846 in Germany, came to U.S.A. about 1891, worked on farms in Kansas and Michigan, before returning to Germany, where he married. Returning to America and settled in Ft. Wayne, Ind. in 1899.

Would appreciate any information you might have

Gentlemen:

I am working on the App family history and have uncovered leads that indicate, Gregory App and his brother Andrew App worked as farm hands somewhere in Hutchinson area during a period of 1891 to 1900.

Perhaps they could be listed in the City or County Directories during the above period. Are do you know of any other records that could be checked.

Thanks for your assistance and help
Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Rondot,

The Polk Company published County Directories in conjunction with the City Directory in the years 1892 and 1894. I have checked each of these volumes for the name App but I could not find it in any of them.

I also checked our Kent County Burial Records but the name App does not appear. It would appear that if he did live in Kent County at one time he is probably not buried here and may have left.

We do not have county directories for any of the other years between 1891-1900, in fact I am not certain if any were published.

I also checked for the name Alt who you mentioned as his employer but he is not listed.

I am sorry that I cannot be more helpful but we have no other resources which would be of assistance.

Sincerely,

O gentlest Heart of Jesus ever present in the Blessed Sacralove for the poor captive souls in purgatory have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy Judgment but let some drops of Thy Precious Blood fall

Thou O merciful Savior send Thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment,

Dear Mr. Dennison,

Did you know that your family name was recorded with a coat-of-arms in ancient heraldic archives more than seven centuries ago?

My husband and I discovered this while doing some research for some friends of ours who have the same last name as you do. We've had an artist recreate the coat-of-arms exactly as described in the ancient records. This drawing, along with other information about the name, has been printed up into an attractive one-page report.

The bottom half of the report tells the story of the very old and distinguished family name of Dennison. It tells what the name means, its origin, the original family motto, its place in history and about famous people who share it. The top half has a large, beautiful reproduction of an artist's drawing of the earliest known coat-of-arms for the name of Dennison. This entire report is documented, authentic and printed on parchment-like paper suitable for framing.

The report so delighted our friends that we have had a few extra copies made in order to share this information with other people of the same name.

Framed, these reports make distinctive wall decorations and they are great gifts for relatives. It should be remembered that we have not traced anyone's individual family tree but have researched back through several centuries to find out about the earliest people named Dennison.

All we are asking for them is enough to cover the added expense of having the extra copies printed and mailed. (See below.) If you are interested, please let us know right away as our supply is pretty slim. Just verify that we have your correct name and address and send the correct amount in cash or check for the number of reports you want. We'll send them promptly by return mail.

Sincerely,

Nancy L. Halbert

P.S. If you are ordering only one report, send two dollars ($2.00). Additional reports ordered at the same time and sent to the same address are one dollar each. Please make checks payable to me, Nancy L. Halbert.

Ft. Wayne, Ind

Feb. 5, 1974.

Dear Teresa and Anna.

Hi. from cold and snowy Indiana. Frances and I have been taking it easy during this freakish weather. We have been fine, except for the usual colds and the problems of getting older. Have tried ice fishing last week but no luck- only a few small ones.

Have taken time out to do more research on when App home was built. The following is what I have found by checking thru the old Ft. Wayne City Directories.

- 901 App Gregory; laborer house 163 Force St.
- 902 App Gregory, laborer Bass F&M Co. house 2319 Force St.

Fleck Casper helper W. Gas Con. Co. bds 2508 Force St.

From the above we can say- the App home was completed and lived in during year of 1903.

Baumans moved into the small house at 2317 Force St. when they came from Kansas and it was before Andrew Bauman was born 5-3-1904.

Tony Sauter, must have come from Germany in 1901 or Early 1902 to be listed in city directory in 1902. There house Sauter's was built in 1906 the same year they were married- as Norbert was born there in 1907.

Casper Fleck may have been in Ft. Wayne prior to 1910 because city directory only lists employed people and we think he was going to school. ?

mer, who was born in Philadelphia, Penn., and died in May, 1885, her parents being Frederick and Catherine (Henning) Wheymer. Mrs. Shank came to this county with her parents in an early day and settled in Harrison township and the father died in this county, the mother being still a resident of Goshen. Mrs. Shank was one of a large family of children: Catherine L., Emma, Maggie, Lina, Sophia, Sadie, William, Frederick and George, two of whom are living in Goshen. Mrs. Shank is the only one out of this family that is deceased. Abraham Shank was married in Elkhart county and settled on the farm in Harrison township, where he followed farming for some time. In politics he was with the Democratic party and in religion has been connected with the Lutheran Church. He was a reliable and substantial citizen and held a number of offices in the township, all of which he has filled in a very satisfactory manner. He was always active in assisting every good enterprise, but his means were not decreased thereby for he became the owner of a good farm of 200 acres, which farm is as well improved as any place in the county. He was an energetic, pushing man of business, and his prosperity was well merited. His children are as follows: Clara, who was born April 13, 1862; John C., was born March 26, 1864, is married to Alice Bechter, a daughter of Henry Bechter and they have one boy, Ernest, who was born February 7, 1891 (John attended the district schools and grew up on the old home farm, assisting his father in the work of the farm and after his marriage lived for two years on the farm of Henry Bechtel. He is a Democrat politically, is a public-spirited young man, and is now engaged in general farming and stockraising); Emma is the next in order of birth, was married in 1866, and is the wife of David Bechtel; Louis, whose birth came next, is living in Goshen, working in the hardware store of that place (he is married to Miss Norah Swartz, a daughter of a prominent citizen of the county, and in politics is a Democrat); Harley was born November 28, 1871, has assumed part of the management of the home farm, is a well informed young man, and politically is a Democrat; Josephine, was born in 1873; Ada; Catherine; Sadie, who died in 1880, and Lula. The father and mother were lifelong members of the Lutheran Church, were worthy, honest and upright people who endeavored to live correct lives and, judging by the high respect in which they were held and by the numerous friends they gathered about them, evidently did so.

→ H. B. App. Among the most noted and representative business men of the flourishing city of Bristol, Ind., stands the name of H. B. App, whose high reputation and material prosperity came as the reward of unusual natural abilities, industriously applied. He is now a prominent merchant of that city, has a good share of patronage and support, and as he is a gentleman of keen business ability, and keeps none but the best of goods, his trade has increased in a very flattering manner. He is a native of the Keystone State, born in Snyder county April 26, 1852, and is a son of John H. and Sarah A. (Bassler) App, both natives of Snyder county, Penn. This family is of German descent and its members were early pioneers of Snyder county. The father of our subject was a farmer by occupation, and continued to till the soil in his native State until 1861, when he came to Indiana, locating one and a half miles west of Bristol, where he purchased a farm on which he lived for a number of years. The mother passed away in 1874 and the father followed her to the grave in 1888. They were the parents of two sons, H. B. and D. W., the latter station agent at Quincy, Mich. H. B. App was but nine years of age when he came with his parents to this county, and his educational advantages were received in the public schools. He grew to manhood on the home place and continued to assist his father in tilling the soil until 1883, when he began clerking for W. R. Merritt, with whom he continued until 1890. At that time he embarked in merchandising for himself and now has one of the best stocked general stores in Bristol. He carries a general line of all kinds of merchandise and is a man of excellent business qualifications and good habits. He was president of the board of health for one term, and for one term was town trustee. He selected his life companion in the person of Miss Sarah Rough, and their marriage was celebrated in 1875. This union resulted in the birth of two sons and a daughter: Fred H., Earl B. and Jessie M. In his political affiliations Mr. App is a Democrat and takes a great interest in his party, being one of the leaders of the same in his community. He is the present chancellor commander of the Knights of Pythias Lodge at Bristol, and is as generous a friend and genial companion as one could wish to meet.

D. B. I. SCHAFER. In the whole range of commercial enterprise no interest is of more importance than that respecting the sale of groceries. This fact is recognized and appreciated by all thoughtful people, and therefore the matter of the selection of a dealer from whom to purchase our supplies calls for careful consideration and discriminating judgment. In this connection it is with genuine pleasure that attention is called to the well-known and reliable house of D. B. I. Schafer, whose place of business is located at 201 North Michigan street and 107-109 Colfax avenue, South Bend, Ind. Being conducted on sound mercantile principles and its management characterized by energy and ability, Mr. Schafer has from the start enjoyed a large and prosperous trade, the unequivocal excellence of the goods handled, coupled with upright and honorable dealing, being among the special features contributing to the positive and permanent success that has attended the enterprise from its inception. Mr. Schafer was born in Cleveland, Ohio, February 21, 1858, a son of Christian and Catherine (Ahr) Schafer, natives of Germany, the former of whom sailed for America when nineteen years of age and located in the vicinity of Cleveland, where he worked out by the day on a farm. About 1862 he removed to Adams county, Ind., where he purchased a farm, on which he remained until 1881, when the city of South Bend became his home and remained such until his death, in 1889. His widow, who has been a resident of this country since she was three years of age, and eight children, survive him, the names of the latter being as follows: John, of Elkhart, Ind.; Mrs. Rev. B. Ruh; Jacob and Fred, of Adams county, Ind.; Mrs. H. Fulke, of South Bend; David B. I.; Edward and Dr. A. F. One child, named Anna, is deceased. D. B. I. Schafer was brought up on a farm in Adams county, Ind., in the district schools of which he received his education. After moving to Decatur, Ind., he was employed in the Grand Rapids & Indiana Railroad office for about four years, but after coming to South Bend he secured employment in the wagon works of Studebaker Bros., where he remained a short time. He was next employed in the grocery house of Tobias Sterns, with whom he remained one year, after which he embarked in the grocery business in partnership with E. T. Ivins, the name of which firm remained Schafer & Ivins for four years, when Mr. Schafer bought his partner's interest and has since continued the business alone. In 1889 he moved to his present stand, where he keeps a large stock of choice and fresh groceries, for which his prices are very reasonable. Mr. Schafer started out in life without means, but energy has prevailed and he has now at his command a comfortable competency and numerous friends. He landed in South Bend with only $1.50 in money and a total stranger to every one, but he possessed those genial qualities which soon win friends, and the sturdy perseverance and industry which can not fail to sooner or later bring the possessor wealth. He is still a young man, and will, without doubt, be a wealthy man before the winter of old age has laid its whitening touch on his hair. He is highly esteemed in the social circles of South Bend, and is a member of the following fraternities: The I. O. O. F., in which he has passed all the chairs and was trustee of South Bend Lodge, No. 29; South Bend Encampment, No. 9, for four years, and was captain of the South Bend Canton, No. 9 for four years; Crusade Lodge, No. 14, and South Bend Division, No. 21, U. R. of the K. of P.; Shipshewana Tribe, No. 12, I. O. R. M.; South Bend Council, No. 347, Royal Arcanum; South Bend Lodge, No. 294, F. & A. M.; South Bend Chapter, No. 29, R. A. M.; South Bend Commandery, No. 13, K. T. and the Order of Elks. He has been captain of the Uniform Rank of the K. of P. for six years and is prominent ○ GENTLEST Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament, ever consumed with burning love for the poor captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on the soul of Thy departed servant. Be not severe in Thy judgement, but let some drops of Thy precious blood fall upon the devouring flames, and do Thou, O merciful Saviour, send thy angels to conduct Thy departed servant to a place of refreshment, light and peace. Amen.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Dear Cousin:

Your letter of November 28, 1973 has been received. I was delighted for I had never heard your name or learned of your from my brother Gaspar.

In January I wrote to the Town Hall (Mayor's office) in ERTINGEN, which is the place where my mother was born. But I never received and answer.

Today, April 9, 1974, was my day off, so I drove up there myself to see what I could find out. The Mayor could tell me nothing because the birth records do not go back that far.

Then we went to ~~xxx~~the Parish and the pastor gave us the following information from the old books:

Father: JOSEPH FLECK, b. Gruenkraut, July 21, 1861, died Hintermoos-Schlier July 15, 1914

Lieber Cousin!

Deinen Brief vom 28. 11. 73. habe ich erhalten. Ich war sehr überrascht, daß ich habe deinen Namen von meinem Bruder Caspar nie gehört oder gelesen.

Im Januar schrieb ich an das Bürgermeisterrat in Erzingen, daß da ist meine Mutter geboren, bekam aber keine Antwort.

Heute am 9. 4. 1974. sind meine Frau und ich selber hingefahren um für dich das Gewünschte zu erfahren. Der Bürgermeister konnte uns keine Auskunft geben, die Geburtsorte liegen zu weit zurück.

Wir gingen jetzt auf das Pfarramt, und der Herr Pfarrer gab uns folgende Auskunft aus den alten Büchern.

Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Private Letter Express Halted Into Canada

The Postal Service temporarily has suspended private express permission to carry letters from the United States to Canada. The suspension limits the right to carry letter mail to the Postal Service only.

The action was taken because of the embargo on all mail addressed to Canada. The embargo was caused by the Canadian Postal Workers' strike.

The U.S. Postal Service has suspended statute private express mail service when it was announced that a suspension was in effect.

Midnight to six, that's my beat tonight. I'm in search of the all-night diner, the 24-hour food factory that slings hash and pumps caffeine into bleary-eyed customers trying to wake up, sober up or wind down. It's a rough assignment. Nobody said being a reporter is easy.

It's midnight as I stumble through the doors of the Old Fortmeyer's Restaurant on U.S. 33. The dampness slides from my jacket as I belly up to a table and order some java. I need to belt down a cup on a night like this. You know the feeling.

Old Fortmeyer's isn't a fancy joint, but the food's good and the talk is cheap. Tonight the talk is on coon hunting. Weldon Moore's there, stuffing his cheek with chewing tobacco and sucking down a last cup of joe before heading out into the rainy night to bag raccoons with his championship-caliber hound. Weldon's a fixture, been coming to Old Fortmeyer's for 14 years — says it's because he likes the family atmosphere.

The steam of my coffee heats my face as I case the room. Yeah, it's probably got a family atmosphere, all right. The jukebox under the Notre Dame poster is loaded with country music, the kind of twangy tunes Louise App keeps plugging dimes in to hear. Louise is OK. Soft heart. She and her husband, Steve, run the place. Louise is the kind who's apt to serve up free cheeseburgers and chili to regular customers who're down on their luck. During last winter's blizzard, she and Steve packed up food and jugs of milk for the people stranded in the nearby apartments.

Yeah, family atmosphere, all right.

It's nearly 1 when my coffee runs out. Weldon's already gone, out searching the woods for coons by the beam from his miner's helmet. I figure it's time for me to light out, too. I toss some coins on the table for Pam Liechty, the late-night waitress and cook, and head on out the door.

The wipers are smearing the rain around on my windshield as I point my headlights toward the parking lot of the new Fortmeyer's Truck Stop. Steve and Louise's place used to be a truck stop, too, but that was before U.S. 30 became the main trucking route and took all the big-rig traffic away from their place on Route 33 and left them with a local crowd instead.

Now the truckers meet at the new Fortmeyer's. You can see why. The parking lot's big enough to accommodate the smoke-belching monsters they drive down the highway. Inside, the diner caters to long-haul drivers' needs with video games, a shop selling everything from sheepskin jackets to bumper reflectors, a truckers' lounge with cable TV and a men's room that boasts shower stalls and prophylactic vending machines. It's big-rig heaven.

Inside the diner, the drivers straddle stools at the counter, pushing eggs around their plates and wearing quilted vests and baseball caps. The talk is tough: all about women, truck routes and jokes. I consider talking politics, change my mind.

Pam Hoagland works the counter, serving up coffee and smiles as the truckers joke with her and gripe about the food. She takes it. Jo Hough is working the tables. She's a former trucker herself but gave up driving a rig when she and her old man split. Now Jo works here, looking pretty and swapping bull with the drivers. She likes it. So do they.

I gulp down a coffee and head out to the parking lot. I'm careful not to let my headlights disturb the truckers who are out there sleeping in their cabs or entertaining those who've offered to keep them com-

Behind the Funhouse

Behind monument lies story of bygone era in city's history

At the corner of Main and Rockhill streets, in the little triangle called Orff Park, is an unlikely civic monument.

Rather than the usual heroic figure of the warrior on horseback or the proud city father, there stand two barefoot boys who are friends, dressed in coveralls of the 1890s. It says in the stone underneath simply "Let's Go Swimming."

This is the statue commemorating the Old Aqueduct Club. It is a monument that is both a marker of something entirely unique to Fort Wayne and, in spirit, universally American.

The Old Aqueduct Club was formed Nov. 29, 1912, in memory of the west-end kids who used the great Wabash and Erie Canal as their swimming hole. The club's origins were appropriately humble.

A railroad engineer named Frank Perry and his friend, Fred Kimball, had met by chance on Calhoun Street early in November, 1912, and begun to recall stories of their boyhood around the ancient aqueduct that carried the canal over the St. Mary's River. Tom Coombs, another friend, joined the two men and soon the idea of a club of old west-enders was hatched. They drew up a list of possible members and met again some days later with other friends to organize the group.

Several names were considered for the club. One favorite was the Old Sand Hill Club, after a fondly remembered alley playground. But the suggestion of Louis Heilbroner that it be called the Old Aqueduct Club was so popular that immediately the organization was formalized and the name adopted.

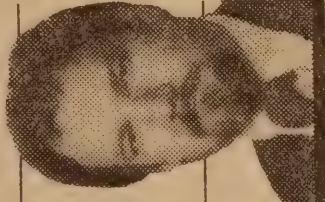

According to the rules, the membership was limited to all males 45 years of age or older (that is, those born in 1867 or earlier), who had lived west of Calhoun Street 40 years earlier or more (before 1872), and who had gone swimming in the Old Aqueduct.

The first annual dinner of the new club, which would always be just before the New Year, was attended by 125 of the old west-end boys. Fifteen years later, in 1927, the club had grown to several hundred members (now living all over the country), and money was raised to construct a statue.

Marshall S. Mahurin, a prominent Fort Wayne architect and former swimmer in the Old Aqueduct, was named to oversee the project. On July 16, 1927, the statue immortalizing boyhood in 19th-century Fort Wayne was dedicated, with a plaque listing 327 west-end boys attached to the front.

The aqueduct where the boys played was located not far from the site of the statue, just a little downstream from the Main Street bridge over the St. Mary's River. The structure was needed to carry the water of the Wabash and Erie Canal across the St. Mary's from the many docks and basins in downtown Fort Wayne. Once past the river, the canal could proceed west toward Huntington and beyond.

The aqueduct was designed by canal builder Jessie Williams and was built by Henry Lotz, later mayor of Fort Wayne (1843-1844). The all-wood flume was 240 feet long, 17 feet wide and 6 feet deep; it was supported on great stone pillars. The water of the canal was kept between 4 and 5 feet deep and moved about 5 miles per hour through the aqueduct, at a weight of more than 450 tons. A roof was erected over the channel to protect it from the weather, giving is the appearance of a covered bridge.

At the west end, just after the aqueduct passed the river bank, a large basin was dug so that the canal boats could turn around or wait for another one to pass. It was here and in the aqueduct itself that the boys often played.

Although use of the canal declined after the 1850s, it was not actually sold until 1876. In 1881, the Nickel Plate Railroad bought the right-of-way and began laying track the next year. Modern steel bridges bypassed the aqueduct, which soon collapsed into the river. By 1883, it had been completely removed.

As for the Old Aqueduct Club, it was one of the most prominent organizations in Fort Wayne, especially in the 1930s when its membership had increased to more than 500.

By 1955, however, time had taken its toll and there were only 11 members at the club's 43rd annual dinner at the Chamber of Commerce. With the passing of the Old Aqueduct Club soon after, there also passed an era immortalized for America by the images of Mark Twain.

Fort Wayne remembers this time and its spirit in a unique statue that is an eloquent testimony to the power of the wistful memories of youth.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Back on Highway 49 it is only seven miles to the town of Jackson with a population of 2,200 at 1,200 feet elevation. It is a lovely well-kept town with many interesting places to visit. The head frames of two old mines that once produced $80 million in gold are well worth seeing as well as the 58-foot-in-diameter wheels once used for hauling the tailings of these mines. Once again the church is named after Saint Patrick, the patron saint of the Irish. It was dedicated by Archbishop Alemany on May 18, 1868.

While visiting this church and another four miles away in Sutter Creek, one is reminded of Father Patrick Walsh who built both of them and perhaps named one of them after his own patron saint. Father Walsh's life links up many places. Though born in Ireland, Patrick Walsh was a student at Saint Thomas Seminary located at Mission Dolores. When he finished his studies he was ordained in old Saint Mary's Cathedral on December 22, 1860, and assigned there. In October, 1862, he was sent as Pastor of Assumption Church in Tomales on the coast. Two years later his assignment was of a very different nature, that of Aurora, a mining camp in Esmeralda County in Nevada. The year 1866 found him assigned as the new pastor of the Churches of Amador County. Up till that time the priest lived in Volcano, and took care of "Jackson, Sutter Creek, Mokelumne Hill, Ione City, Live Oaks, Michigan Bar and Plymouth" as the baptismal register lists the mission stations.

During Father Walsh's first term as pastor, the various towns were plagued with a series of disastrous fires. One of them consumed both church and rectory in Volcano in September, 1868, prompting Father Walsh to move to Sutter Creek. In 1871 the Archbishop sent Father Walsh to the farthestmost outpost of the Archdiocese to establish a Catholic parish in Salt Lake City. Here he built Sacred Heart Church, the first Catholic Church in the Mormon him in such unrelated and far-flung places as Tomales; Aurora, Nevada; Volcano; Salt Lake City, Utah; Sutter Creek and Modesto — sea coast, desert, foothills, mountains and interior valley, all different climates separated by hundreds of miles.

Placerville

After leaving Sutter Creek, Highway 49 winds through several other small communities. Thirty miles of pleasant driving through varied terrain brings the tourist to the bustling city of Placerville, once known as Hangtown. Placerville, with a population of 5,700 people, is at the intersection of Highway 49 and main east-west U.S. Highway 50 heading for the south shore of Lake Tahoe. Distinctly modern in its services to the traveler, its setting is one of pine trees, narrow winding streets, lovely old homes and a great deal of history. It is another must overnight stop. Unfortunately the fourth Saint Patrick's Church on the route is not the original one which was established as a parish in 1855.

One of the reasons for an overnight in Placerville is the possibility of a side trip to Georgetown some 15 miles away over a winding road on State Route 193. The narrow road perhaps accentuates what one finds when arriving in the town of less than 1,000 people at a 2,654-foot elevation. A main street 100 feet in width with side streets 60 feet wide is a great contrast to the typical towns in the Mother Lode. This was the community's answer to the disastrous fires which plagued these mining towns!

Saint James Church in Georgetown, now a mission of Placerville, if it could talk, would tell us about one of the outstanding characters among pioneer priests, Father Patrick O'Kane who for the last 22 years of his long life of 85 years was its pastor.

A tall handsome young man on his arrival from Ireland in 1865, he was ordained at Old Saint Mary's other series of assistant pastorships which totaled some 16 transfers between 1866 and 1900.

Finally Father O'Kane settled down in Georgetown, where he posted the Masses as "Coloma at 8 o'clock, Georgetown, generally speaking 10 o'clock." This could mean 10:30 or 11 o'clock or whenever he got there. Nothing was ever hurried. Sunday was the Lord's Day and the congregation soon found that out. Dozens of stories survive telling of marriages, funerals, even receptions which were occasions for Father O'Kane to wax eloquent and at length. This rather eccentric but very good priest lived until January 22, 1926, when he died after a priesthood of 60 years and a very humble and simple lifestyle.

The next day resumption of the Highway 49 tour brings the visitor to lovely Coloma, the site of the discovery of gold in January, 1848. Sutters Mill has been restored. A fine museum awaits the visitor along with Saint John's Church built in 1856 where Mass is said occasionally.

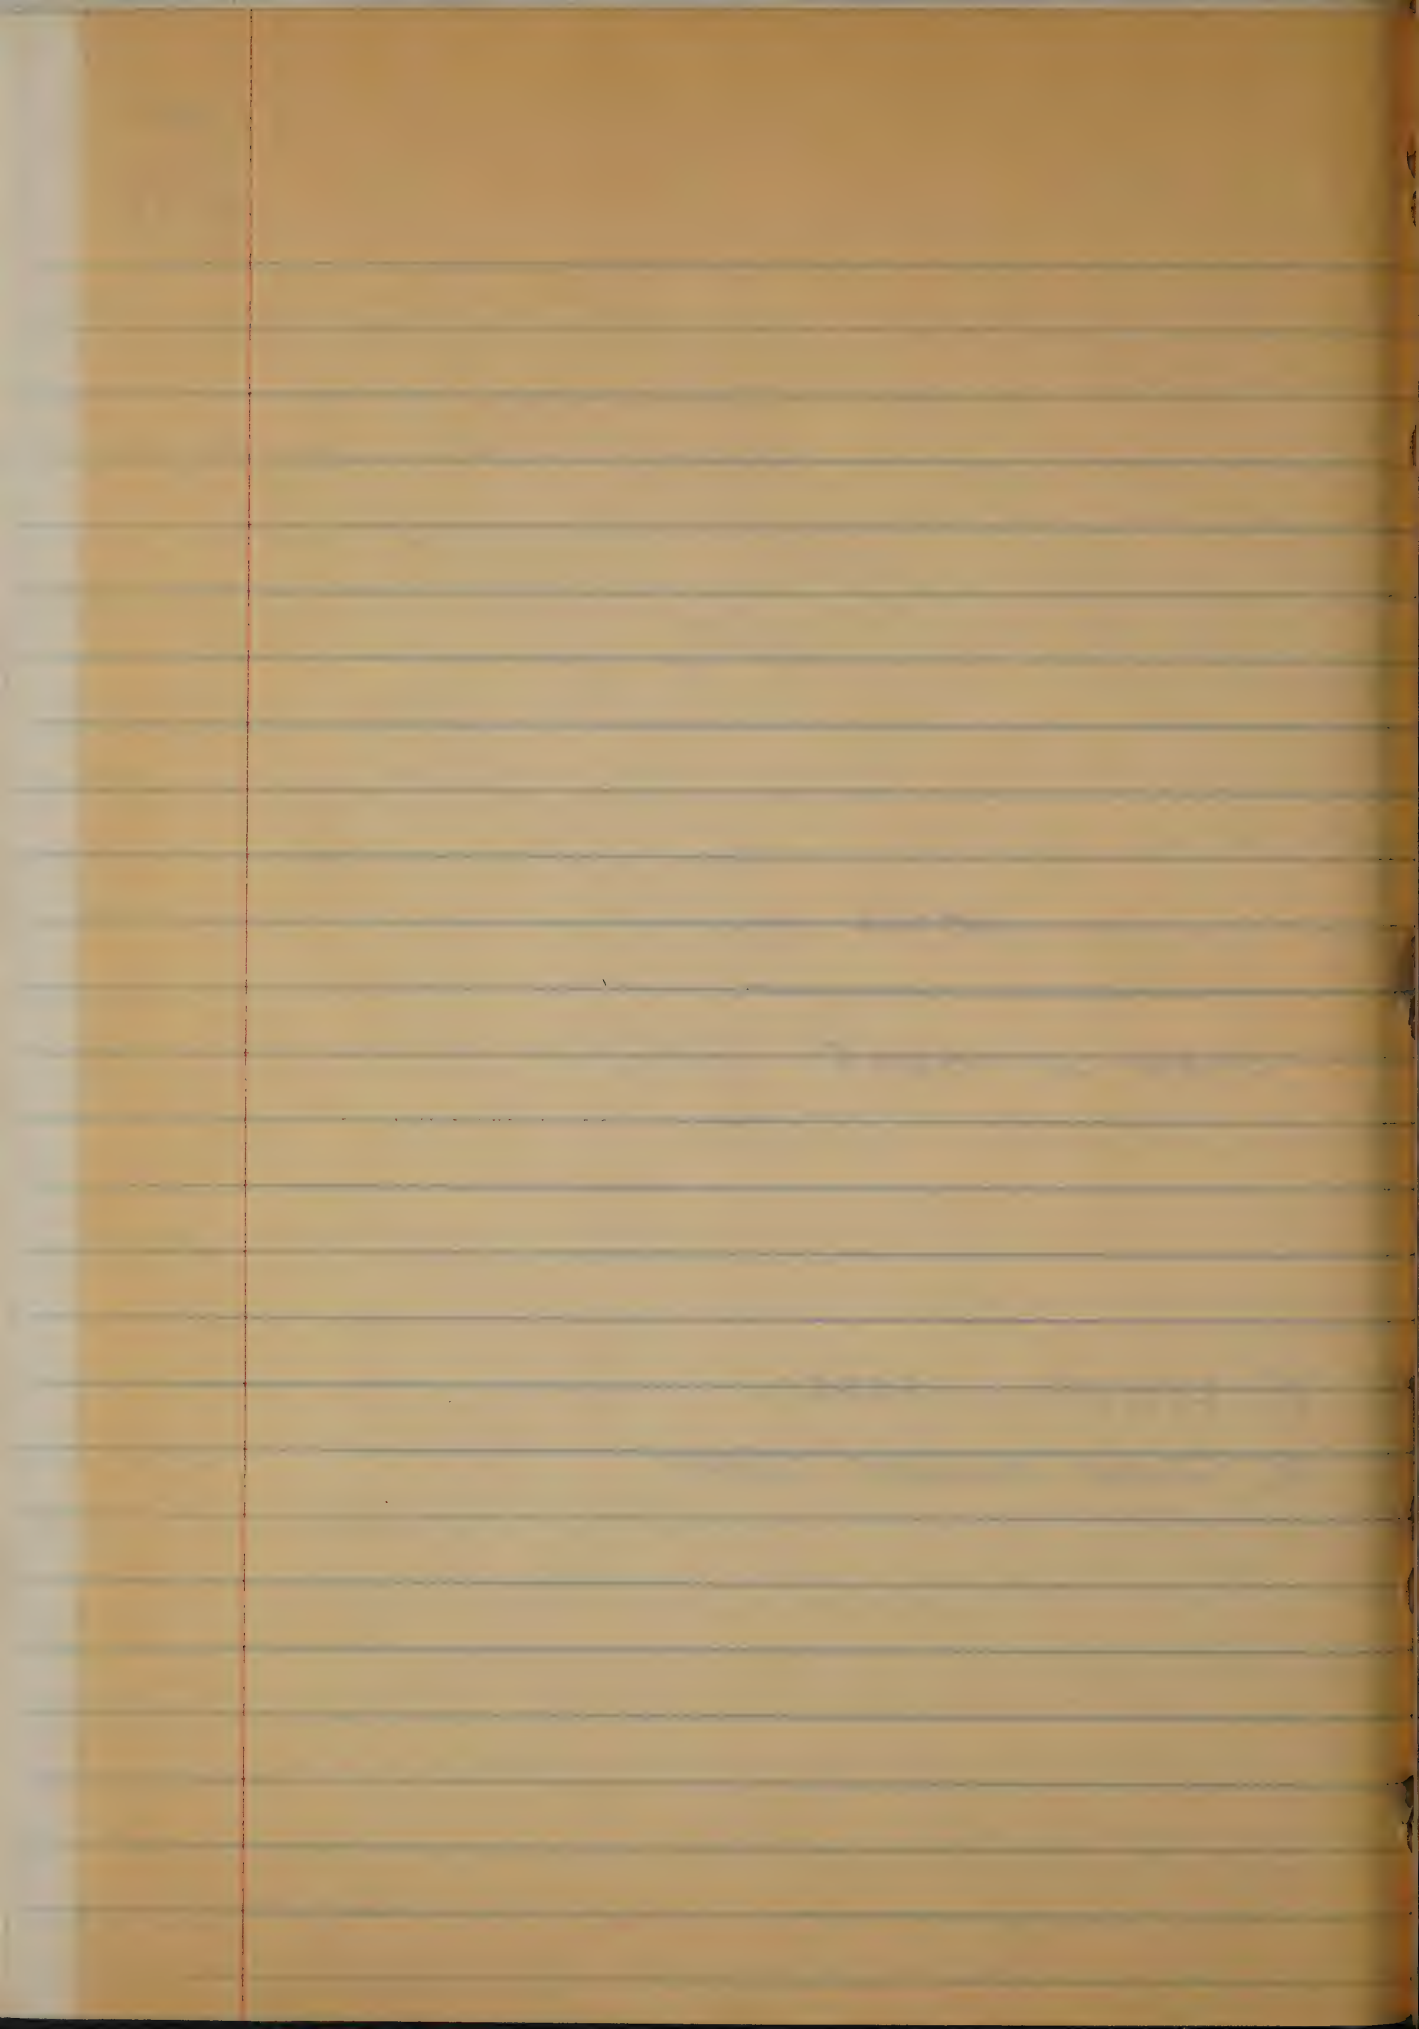

The drive to Auburn 18 miles away is a slow one because the road winds down to the American River, crosses it and then climbs the ridge to Auburn perched at its top, originally called Dry Diggings. Twenty-four miles from Auburn on an excellent stretch of Highway 49 brings the visitor to Grass Valley, once the seat of a diocese of the same name. Situated at 2,500 feet and with a population of almost 6,000, this charming community deserves an overnight stay. Only four miles from Nevada City, the two communities afford the visitor everything desirable in gold mining nostalgia and in Church history. Both Grass Valley and Nevada City have restored the gas light lamps; both have sidewalks with porches protecting them, old historic buildings and pleasant eating places. Although Grass Valley's historic Saint Patrick's Cathedral has been replaced by a modern church built in 1949, next door is

LEARNED HISTORY - BEING SINCE

NO 1905

July 9, 1978 / VISITOR / 9

Father Patrick O'Kane

THE Mother Lode (veta madre) is the name given by miners from Sonora, Mexico, to the rich quartz veins discovered in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountains in California in 1849. Appropriately numbered, State Highway 49 crosses this Mother Lode from south to north covering 261 miles and traversing nine California counties. Not a fast highway, it crosses some six rivers or forks of rivers and then often climbs to the summit of the ridge which divides the forks. The vacationer who is in a hurry does not take State Route 49, but the wise traveler who wishes to indulge in historic nostalgia of the gold rush days will not miss it.

The true start of Highway 49 is at Mariposa, a town of 1,000 people at an elevation of 1,953 feet. The Catholic visitor is attracted to Saint Joseph's Church, a typical example of a white belfried church perched on a hill. This historic building was dedicated on January 18, 1863, by Archbishop Joseph S. Alemany (1853-84) who came from San Francisco for the occasion. The modern traveler covering the 200 miles from San Francisco, breezes along freely in comfortable autos, but the pioneer Archbishop made the trip by steamboat to Stockton and then by stagecoach over muddy roads. While in this far distant outpost of his vast diocese he gave Confirmation and blessed churches in Mariposa, Coulterville and Sonora.

We are reminded while in Mariposa of the priest who pioneered in this area from 1859 till 1867, Father Louis Auger, a native of Paris, France, who was born in 1819. How he came to San Francisco is not known, but he was a student at the first diocesan Seminary, Saint Thomas, located at Mission Dolores. Ordained at Old Saint Mary's Church in San Francisco by Archbishop Alemany on February 16, 1856, he was assigned as an assistant at the French church there. In August, 1856, he was sent to take care of Saint Vincent's orphanage for boys at San Rafael and to serve as pastor of the San Rafael parish. In June, 1859, he was sent to take care of the church in Sonora, of which Mariposa was a mission station. He ministered to the mining towns in the southern end of the Mother Lode for eight years and was then assigned to Suisun, a town on the Sacramento River delta. After 1872 there is no trace of what became of this valiant pioneer French priest.

The drive from Mariposa to the next principal town, Sonora, though less than 50 miles, requires about one-and-a-half hours. But to do it well requires a half day. How can one resist the turnoff — of which there are many on Route 49, to such places as Hornitos, 13 miles to the west and a visit to Saint Catherine's Church there. Hornitos today has a population of 134, but once had 15,000. It was formed when the American miners "voted" the Mexican miners out of a neighboring town. Saint Catherine's was built in 1862 but when it was in danger of collapsing in the 1930s, the community got together and strengthened the wooden building with rock buttresses and a rock foundation, a strange combination indeed.

Some 10 miles south of Sonora, the driver could easily miss Chinese Camp; yet it too is a spot that has a tale. The tiny town of 150 people today doesn't even hint that 5,000 Chinese once lived there in a noisy, busy, colorful and wicked town. On the hill to the side of the road is Saint Francis Xavier Church, now closed, but not deserted. Its walls recall Father Thomas Cian (Chan), a Chinese priest who served in the Archdiocese from 1854 until 1865.

The new Archbishop (1853), quite concerned about the large population of Chinese in the Archdiocese, appealed to Rome for help. Father Cian of the Congregation of the Holy Family who had been ordained in Rome was sent to the aid of the Archbishop but his work was discouraging among the largely pagan Chinese. By the end of 1860 he had performed only 268 Baptisms and 21 marriages. It was at this time that the Archbishop sent him to Chinese Camp. Aside from building the church, his labors were fruitless and after one year he returned to San Francisco where he was appointed pastor of the Spanish and Italians. Life was hard for him because many Catholics did not believe he was truly a priest, having never seen nor heard before of a Chinese priest. He left his fruitless mission in 1865 and returned to Italy where he was assigned to a seminary for Chinese priests in Naples. He died there in 1868.

As the traveler approaches the area of Sonora, he is amazed at the closeness of churches. Six miles from Chinese Camp is Jamestown and the now closed Saint James Church. In Sonora itself four miles away is Saint Patrick's, and just four miles more, the beautiful Saint Anne's in Columbia, also closed. Why so many churches so close together? Easy to say when these towns are linked by almost freeway-like roads in fast autos. But the pioneers who built them had to travel to church in horse-pulled buggies over unpaved roads. They wanted their church close at hand and so they built beautiful ones and cared for them lovingly.

Saint Patrick's

Saint Patrick's in Sonora, also perched on the side of a hill, was dedicated by Archbishop Alemany on January 25, 1863. The church was built by the French Father Auger, but probably because of the many "Irish" donations it was appropriately named Saint Patrick's, the first of several along Highway 49. The visitor does well to spend a full day and night in Sonora, a town of just under 4,000 people at an elevation of 1,825 feet. It is hard to realize it once had 14,000 people. Originally settled by Mexicans from Sonora, Mexico, these in turn were driven out by the "Yankee" miners from the east and little remains of its original culture beyond its name. Though the town of Sonora is often called the Queen of the Southern mines, it is Saint Anne's Church four miles away in Columbia that is the queen of the Mother Lode churches.

Saint Anne's, one of the first brick churches in California, was dedicated by Archbishop Alemany on November 2, 1856. Closed today because one wall is in danger of collapse, it awaits a benefactor to restore it to its original state.

Back on Highway 49, a short drive brings the traveler to San Andreas, another town with a Spanish name, but little else to remind one of its origins. A modern Catholic Church has replaced the original one. Eight miles farther is the turnoff into another nostalgic area, Mokelumne Hill, with a current population of 1,400 rather than the 12,000 which it had in its heyday. Scene of the war between the Americans and a group of French miners, Mok Hill, as it is often called, today is peaceful and charming. The city. After two years in this remote mission, he returned to his beloved Immaculate Conception in Sutter Creek, where he remained until 1876. Eventually he became the founding pastor of Saint Stanislaus Church in Modesto where he died on December 23, 1884, after a ministry of 24 years which found him in such unrelated and far-flung places as Tomales; Aurora, Nevada; Volcano; Salt Lake City, Utah; Sutter Creek and Modesto — sea coast, desert, foothills, mountains and interior valley, all different climes separated by hundreds of miles.

During Father Walsh's first term as pastor, the various towns were plagued with a series of disastrous fires. One of them consumed both church and rectory in Volcano in September, 1868, prompting Father Walsh to move to Sutter Creek. In 1871 the Archbishop sent Father Walsh to the farthestmost outpost of the Archdiocese to establish a Catholic parish in Salt Lake City. Here he built Sacred Heart Church, the first Catholic Church in the Mormon

Placerville

After leaving Sutter Creek, Highway 49 winds through several other small communities. Thirty miles of pleasant driving through varied terrain brings the tourist to the bustling city of Placerville, once known as Hangtown. Placerville, with a population of 5,700 people, is at the intersection of Highway 49 and main east-west U.S. Highway 50 heading for the south shore of Lake Tahoe. Distinctly modern in its services to the traveler, its setting is one of pine trees, narrow winding streets, lovely old homes and a great deal of history. It is another must overnight stop. Unfortunately the fourth Saint Patrick's Church on the route is not the original one which was established as a parish in 1855.

One of the reasons for an overnight in Placerville is the possibility of a side trip to Georgetown some 15 miles away over a winding road on State Route 193. The narrow road perhaps accentuates what one finds when arriving in the town of less than 1,000 people at a 2,654-foot elevation. A main street 100 feet in width with side streets 60 feet wide is a great contrast to the typical towns in the Mother Lode. This was the community's answer to the disastrous fires which plagued these mining towns!

Saint James Church in Georgetown, now a mission of Placerville, if it could talk, would tell us about one of the outstanding characters among pioneer priests, Father Patrick O'Kane who for the last 22 years of his long life of 85 years was its pastor.

A tall handsome young man on his arrival from Ireland in 1865, he was ordained at Old Saint Mary's Cathedral on February 24, 1866. His first pastorate was in Weaverville where he was responsible for the mining camps of Trinity, Shasta and Tehama counties. Then followed a series of two-year pastorates which found him in Oroville, Red Bluff, Hamilton, and Gold Hill, Nevada. Then began another series of assistant pastorships which totaled some 16 transfers between 1866 and 1900.

Finally Father O'Kane settled down in Georgetown, where he posted the Masses as "Coloma at 8 o'clock, Georgetown, generally speaking 10 o'clock." This could mean 10:30 or 11 o'clock or whenever he got there. Nothing was ever hurried. Sunday was the Lord's Day and the congregation soon found that out. Dozens of stories survive telling of marriages, funerals, even receptions which were occasions for Father O'Kane to wax eloquent and at length. This rather eccentric but very good priest lived until January 22, 1926, when he died after a priesthood of 60 years and a very humble and simple lifestyle.

The next day resumption of the Highway 49 tour brings the visitor to lovely Coloma, the site of the discovery of gold in January, 1848. Sutters Mill has been restored. A fine museum awaits the visitor along with Saint John's Church built in 1856 where Mass is said occasionally.

The drive to Auburn 18 miles away is a slow one because the road winds down to the American River, crosses it and then climbs the ridge to Auburn perched at its top, originally called Dry Diggings. Twenty-four miles from Auburn on an excellent stretch of Highway 49 brings the visitor to Grass Valley, once the seat of a diocese of the same name. Situated at 2,500 feet and with a population of almost 6,000, this charming community deserves an overnight stay. Only four miles from Nevada City, the two communities afford the visitor everything desirable in gold mining nostalgia and in Church history. Both Grass Valley and Nevada City have restored the gas light lamps; both have sidewalks with porches protecting them, old historic buildings and pleasant eating places. Although Grass Valley's historic Saint Patrick's Cathedral has been replaced by a modern church built in 1949, next door is

*THE Lord is my shepherd;
 I shall not want.*

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

*He restoreth my soul: he lead-

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

*Surely goodness and mercy
